All In One Day

I strike the clock it was
Not the right time
Not a good time, no no
It's never a good time

In my reflection I was
Not happy
So unhappy
I'm never happy

From start to finish
I struggle with it
It's just not going my way
And it seems to be all in one day

When will it end, this day?
When will the sun go down?
It's just not going my way
And it happens all in one day

Commuting, I was Sitting
Just sitting oh no
Forever sitting

Road rage building I was Waiting
Just waiting
Anticipating

The stress is building in me
Is this the life that was meant to be
Routines are consuming
Brain dead and still losing
I don't think I can take any more
I unlock the door
Don't tie me down I'm no slave
I'll decide when it's time to dig my own grave
