Another Side To Me

Another Side To Me

Lyrics by David Saul

Sitting lonely
Waiting for you to talk to me
Silence crushing me
Words are useless
The distance like a void of pain
I try to catch your eye
Lost in my thoughts
Confusion forming in my mind
And my mouth can not form sound
Feeling empty
I sense that something's wrong again
But I feel I'm not to blame

And when you see me
You only see the half of me
And your ignorance avoids
Another side to me

Clock is ticking
Time is slowly passing by
The minutes feel like hours
Heart is aching
I'm craving to be held again
But something's on your mind
Questions forming
Am I the one to blame for this?
I'm doubting my own thoughts
Losing patience
No solution reachable
I just don't see the point

Clock is ticking
You speak no word of what I've done
Hours seem like days
Sitting waiting
Is this like a game to you?
A game that has no end

Embrace this side of me
I want you to see all of me
The distance like a void of pain
Please help make me whole again
Accept another side to me
Love the other side of me
